Sparkling & Champagne

There's no drink more synonymous with celebration than sparkling wine. The effervescence, the bubbles - they bring joy to every occasion. Champagne, the world's most prestigious sparkling wine, has long been associated with luxury and refinement, while other regions like Prosecco, Cava, and Cremant offer equally delightful alternatives. Sparkling wines bring elegance, lightness, and a touch of magic to any moment.

In this chapter, we bring you a selection of sparkling wines, from the iconic Champagne to other world-class options. Whether it's a special celebration or simply a toast to life's pleasures, these wines add sparkle to any event, turning the everyday into something extraordinary.

Light & Crisp

Moët & Chandon Imperial Brut

The colour is a golden yellow with fine bubbles. On the nose fresh fruits combine with citrus notes of lemon and orange. On the palate more citrus flavour show through with great balance. The mid-palate opens to a focused flavour of refreshing acidity. A very clean finish with impressions of white peach.

Country: France

Australia

Australia's wine regions are as varied as the landscapes themselves, from the sun-drenched coastlines to the cooler, inland valleys. With a reputation for producing wines that are rich, bold, and approachable, Australian winemakers combine innovation with a deep respect for tradition. The iconic Shiraz, with its layers of dark fruit and spicy undertones, remains a favorite, but Australian wines go far beyond this celebrated varietal.

In this chapter, we highlight a diverse selection of Australian wines that showcase the country's versatility, from crisp Sauvignon Blancs to the complex, structured reds that continue to turn heads globally. With a perfect balance of flavour, consistency, and quality, Australian wines are a wonderful addition to any pub or restaurant looking to offer something both familiar and exciting.

Non-Alcoholic Wines

A Growing Category

Non alcoholic wines offer all the character and enjoyment of traditional wines, but with little to no alcohol. Crafted using the same grapes and winemaking techniques as their alcoholic counterparts, the alcohol is gently removed at the final stage to preserve flavour, aroma and structure.

This rapidly growing category responds to increasing consumer demand for mindful drinking, healthier lifestyles and inclusive options for every occasion. From crisp sparkling whites and refreshing rosés to smooth reds, non alcoholic wines provide a versatile and sophisticated alternative without compromising on taste.

Non-alcoholic wines are increasingly becoming a must list category for all venues and are a huge opportunity for your business to increase spend per head and margin.

Fortified & Dessert Wines

Rich, Characterful and Indulgent

Fortified and dessert wines offer depth, richness and a sense of occasion, making them a distinctive addition to any wine range. Fortified wines are crafted by adding spirit during or after fermentation, resulting in wines with greater strength, complexity and longevity. Dessert wines, meanwhile, are naturally sweet styles made from grapes with concentrated sugars, delivering luscious flavours and luxurious texture.

From the nutty, savoury notes of aged Sherry to the ripe fruit and velvety sweetness of Port and late-harvest wines, these styles bring diversity and interest to any list. Perfect as an aperitif, paired with food or enjoyed after dinner, fortified and dessert wines offer customers a premium and memorable drinking experience.
